

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY EVE., OCT. 19, 1888.

MEXICO has about the highest tariff in existence, and yet wages in that country are the lowest known anywhere.

OCTOBER 25 will be Democratic Day at the Cincinnati Centennial. Democrats should capture the Queen City that day and keep possession until after the election.

MAJOR BURCHETT is said to be a good shoemaker. It would be a pity to spoil a good shoemaker in trying to make a bad Congressman.—Fleming True Blue Democrat.

If the Democrats of this district do their duty the "shoemaker" will not be spoiled this time.

DEMOCRATS have a majority of only eleven in the House of Representatives. The Ninth district should do her duty this time and send Paynter to Washington. He is the peer of Major Burchett in every sense of the word.

SELLING boots and shoes is an entirely different business from making them. Major Burchett's friends are trying to palm him off as "the shoemaker of the Sandy Valley," and yet the statement comes from his own home that he never made a pair of shoes in his life.

CLEVELAND's administration has restored 85,000,000 acres of land to the public domain—land that Republicans had granted to grasping railroad monopolies. Poor people who may need a home in the West some day should paste this in their hat for reference on election day.

THEY talk of giving Paynter 250 majority in Fleming County. If they do that well, Mason County ought to give him 800. And that will be the size of it if every Democrat will rally to the polls on the 6th of November and see that his Democratic neighbors do likewise.

MR. PAYNTER is the nominee of a party that is seeking to lower the tariff—the taxes—on the necessities of life. Major Burchett's party is opposed to this and would make these taxes on necessities still higher than they are at present. Let the voters choose between these two.

THAT grand old Roman, Judge Thurman, has always proved the friend of the people and an enemy to the monopolist and grasping railroad corporations. This statement will not be denied. He has favored the masses and opposed the classes. Remember this when you come to vote.

BLAINE was introduced at New Albany, Ind., as "a man who maintained Northern principles, who defended Northern privileges, who protected Northern interests, and who propagated Northern sentiments." This country has little use for that sort of a man. It should be remembered that Blaine is talking for Mr. Harrison. What is wanted is a representative of the people and not of a section.

It cannot be denied that the plows manufactured in this country go into the British Islands and into many countries of continental Europe. An Indiana manufacturer has admitted that vehicles made by his establishment may be found to-day in Cape Town, South Africa, on the streets of Sidney and Melbourne, Australia, in all the principal cities of Mexico, and even in Persia, to say nothing of the South American trade.

Now, can it be honestly claimed that a tariff which increases the cost of the lumber, iron and steel in these vehicles to our manufacturers does not place the latter at an absolute disadvantage in every foreign market where their products are offered for sale?

Are not these clear cases where American enterprise, American pluck and American skill have pushed their products in the market of the world, not by virtue of, but in spite of obstructive legislation?

Give the American manufacturer free material, or a moderate duty where the welfare of the country seems to require it, and you will hear no more of idle machinery and starving workmen.

Watch Illinois.

Reports from Illinois preface a Democratic victory in November. The leading Republican papers of Chicago have for years been preaching tariff reform and the people of that section know only too well that the Republican "free whisky" platform is a repudiation of the past declarations of that party. Hence they are not to be bamboozled and frightened by the "free trade" bugaboo—they know it is political clap-trap to catch votes, and nothing more.

Hon. James A. McKenzie, who has just returned from a canvass of that State, says: "Everything in Illinois looks favorable to Democratic success, no matter how strange the statement may appear. Palmer will be elected Governor beyond a doubt. He has the State nailed down. Cleveland and Thurman will also have it before November."

Keep Your Eye on Iowa.

In 1880 the Republicans carried Iowa by 80,000 majority. At the last election for Governor their majority was cut down to the pitiful size of 1,061. Look at these figures. There is but one conclusion to be drawn from them, and that is that the State of Iowa is one of the very doubtful Republican States in the present campaign. The masses out there have learned that the Democratic party is the party of the people, and cheering reports come from the campaign they are now engaged in.

The Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office, General Anderson, is of Iowa, and is one of the best posted men on the politics of that State. He is exceedingly confident of Democratic victory there.

"The rapid decline of the 80,000 Republican majority in 1880 to 1,061 at the last gubernatorial election means by this time the State is Democratic," said Gen. Anderson. "My correspondence brings me good news every day. For instance, one writer will say that if there are changes in other parts of the State equal to the changes in his locality the State will certainly go Democratic. Now, I consider such information as showing the direction of the political current, Iowa is purely an agricultural State and the farmers are all in favor of tariff reform."

A Republican's Views.

As it is, I might be pronounced a tariff-reform Republican. Hundreds of others, many of whom will vote for the Republican nominee simply on account of the name of the party, think as I do. They believe the attitude of the party on the tariff question all wrong, and that foisting the present platform of the Republican party by its bosses was an outrage on intelligent and sensible men. I am utterly opposed to the tax on whisky and tobacco being taken off, and I believe in the principles advocated by the Democratic party, that the tariff on the necessities of life should be removed. In fact, the Republican party stands on a false basis, and had it not been that the Democrats took their stand first on the question the Republican party would to-day have been advocating the very thing the Democrats are fighting for. But the Democrats having taken the priority, the Republican leaders felt that they had to oppose what the Democrats advocated, right or wrong.

The above was uttered by Mr. W. B. Belknap, head of the great hardware and iron house of W. B. Belknap & Co., of Louisville. He has heretofore been a Republican and has supported that party, but he denounces its platform this year in unmistakable terms. No sensible man, if he will throw aside partisan bias, will conscientiously say that Mr. Belknap is not right in his views. Let no one be deceived—the Democratic position is the correct one. It favors the people and opposes the capitalists.
